CITY NEWS.

WANTED TO HIRE--A sober, attentive negro man for the balance of the year. Inquire at the Democrat Office.

The election is over, but we hardly think there will be any demonstrations of joy over the result. We believe few human beings are entirely destitute of the sense of shame--we do not think our opponents have lost it entirely, and sure we are that while one particle of shame is left they will scarcely indulge in any enthusiastic manifestations of joy. Their shouts would stick in their throats, their flags would flap like the wings of ill-omened birds, and their fireworks would burn with the ghastly glare of the tomb-fire. No, they cannot dance while the corpse of Liberty is laid out before them; they cannot laugh with those death fixed eyes staring them in the face.

THE ELECTION--The returns along the Frankfort railroad are about of the same character as in the city.

As the train came through Frankfort yesterday morning, there was but one Wickliffe vote, and that was polled before the arrival of the soldiers.

We learn from Bloomfield and Mt. Washington that the Democratic ticket was entirely ruled off the poll books.

We learn that in Lexington some of the soldiers of the Second Maryland, Ninth Kentucky, and one other Eastern regiment were voted, not one of whom could claim his residence there.

At Portland Wickliffe votes were all ruled off but two or three, and the following parties arrested: Martin Nippert and his wife, Capt. George Miller, George Scott and Daniel McClellan.

Three hundred rebel prisoners, who were captured by our forces in the vicinity of Winchester and Lexington, were brought down upon a special train from Lexington yesterday. As the military prison could not accommodate any more with boarding, they were taken from the depot over the river and taken to Camp Chase. Some of them state that the rebel Colonel Scott is not killed as has been reported.

DANVILLE FEMALE ACADEMY--This admirable institution, under control of the Rev. Mr. Selph, is already well known to the most of our readers to need any notice from us. All who have visited or patronized the school testify to its happy arrangements for educating young ladies. The buildings and grounds are most tastefully constructed and arranged. See advertisement.

The incidents of the election yesterday will of themselves form an interesting bit of history, and we shall, as the smoke clears away, endeavor to furnish them to our readers in plain, unvarnished terms. If there are any who are jubilant over the result, and the history of yesterday's performances, we envy them not.

We call attention to the fact that the regular monthly meeting of the Louisville Board of Trade takes place to-day. All the business men are earnestly requested to be present. Also those who have been elected members and have not yet taken the oath of affirmation.

We are authorized to announce the fact that no more passes will be issued at the Louisville and Nashville Railroad depot. All passes will be issued hereafter at Col. Mundy's headquarters, or at District headquarters.

The Rhine Saloon, on Fourth street, having one door open, with a good lot of customers inside, was closed in a very summary manner about 11 o'clock yesterday by the military, and the proprietors taken to prison.

About one hundred sick and wounded soldiers were brought up from Nashville on the train Sunday evening. They represented every regiment in the army of the Cumberland.

A man named Charles Davis took the liberty to shout for Jeff. Davis Sunday night, on the street. He was arrested and put in the military prison. He was doing well at last accounts.

We direct the attention of men in the service to general order No. 122, issued from Gen. Burnside's headquarters, to be found in our columns this morning.
